

OVIDE M. LAMONTAGNE      SHAREHOLDER

Ovide Lamontagne is a Manchester native and has been with the firm since 1986. He represents clients in complex business transactions and commercial litigation, specializing in the areas of healthcare, not-for-profit charitable trust litigation including representing religious organizations, and construction law. Ovide serves as general counsel to several not-for-profit organizations and is involved in many civic, charitable and political organizations and activities, and is one of the firms bilingual shareholders, with French being his second language.

EDUCATION:

University of Wyoming College of Law, Juris Doctor, 1985
Catholic University of America, Bachelor of Arts, 1979

BAR ADMISSIONS:

New Hampshire

REPRESENTATIVE TRANSACTIONS

- Handled complex litigation involving the disaffiliation of two merged community hospitals
- Represented rural community hospital in successful merger with larger community hospital
- Negotiated the settlement of NH Attorney General's investigation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Manchester
- Represented not-for-profit college in acquisition transaction by for-profit corporation

T. 603.695.8516
F. 603.695.8610
olamontagne@devinemillimet.com

Office Location:
111 Amherst Street
Manchester, NH
03101