DEVINE MILLIMET ATTORNEY ELECTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Moore Center Names Newton H. Kershaw, Jr. To Leadership Team

Manchester, NH, February 11, 2005. New England law firm, Devine Millimet, announces attorney, Newton H. Kershaw, Jr., is elected to the Board of Directors for Moore Center Services, Inc.

Moore Center Services, Inc. was founded in 1960 by a small group of parents who came together to support one another and their families, and grew over the years into a large, private, nonprofit organization that supports individuals with developmental disabilities and acquired brain disorders to live and work in their communities.

"Newton has devoted a significant amount of personal and professional time to working with nonprofit agencies in our community targeting individuals and families impacted by brain injury," stated Susan V. Duprey, President, Devine Millimet. "The Moore Center is a wonderful organization and Newton's work with this agency speaks to one of Devine Millimet's overall goals – to foster mutually beneficial relationships that positively impact the community."

Attorney Kershaw focuses his practice in the area of employee benefits. He is involved in a wide range of issues, including qualified pension plans, ESOPs, executive compensation, cafeteria and flexible benefit plans, COBRA, pension investment policies, fiduciary responsibilities, benefits taxation, controlled groups, health benefits, disability benefits, governmental plans, and 403(b) plans.
